OTHER:

REMAIN EFFECTIVE longer than one year because respondent(s) is/are likely to resume acts of unlawful harassment against me if the order expires in a year.

Require the respondent to pay the fees and cost of this action.

Unlawful Harassment means a knowing and willful course of conduct directed at a specific person which seriously alarms, annoys, or harasses, or is detrimental to such person and which serves no legitimate or lawful purpose. The course of conduct shall be such as would cause a reasonable person to suffer substantial emotional distress and shall actually cause substantial emotional distress to the petitioner or when the course of conduct would cause a reasonable parent to fear for the well-being of their child. Course of conduct means a pattern of conduct composed of a series of acts over a period of time, however short, evidencing a continuity of purpose. "Course of conduct" includes, in addition to any other form of communication, contact, or conduct, the sending of an electronic communication. Constitutionally protected activities are not included with the meaning of "course of conduct."

STATEMENT: The respondent has committed acts of unlawful harassment as follows. (Describe specific acts of harassment and their approximate dates, beginning with the most recent act. You may want to include police responses.)
